ReflectCE

AI-powered right-place, right-time, self-directed reflective learning

Release Date: May 15, 2022

Expiration Date: Apr 14, 2025

Statement of Need

This activity helps address certain relevant blindspots within the clinicians' clinical, administrative and personal day-to-day practice, while learning how reflective practice can be applied to themselves and their peers. This is accomplished via an awareness engine that surfaces nudges at the right place and right time for clinicians to engage and reflect. The clinician is prompted to reflect upon how the surfaced content within the nudge applies to their day-to-day. This reflection is captured in their learning journal allowing to serve as serving as both a reference for the learner and a nudge to share with their team.
